Long before the Shulgins' alphabetamine love stories appeared on bookstore shelves, Marcia Moore and Howard Alltounian gave us Journeys Into the Bright World, a drug travelogue focused on the transpersonal effects of ketamine. As with Into the Void, there's a strong woo-woo vibe: Moore was a New Age author-lecturer. I initially wondered how Alltounian, a doctor trained in Western medicine, so comfortably

This is the intimate personal story of their life together, their love and their explorations into forbidden zones of higher consciousness. Here is tape-recorded evidence of the struggles they endured, the past lives they relived and the joy that they found--under the guidance of the goddess Ketamine.

Perhaps one of the most-travelled journeys in the world is the Hajj. In fact, this pilgrimage can have a lot of different routes, but they all end in the same place: Mecca. As one of the five pillars of Islam, every Muslim who is able to do so must complete the Hajj at least once in their lives, leading to the world's largest gathering of Muslim people taking place in Mecca in the month of ...
